

Big Decisions

My Morning Jacket

Sittin round wondering just what the hell
To do with your life.
Only get one chance- but you seem to always think twice.
And i'm getting so tired of trying to always be nice.
You're sweet and sincere but so ruled by fear. What do you want me to do?
Make all the big decisions for you?
Cuz i can't. Cuz i can't I don't quite feel like faking it again tonight.
Don't really feel like saying (everything is alright)
You're sweet and sincere but so ruled by fear.
What do you want me to do?
Make all the big decisions for you?
Cuz i can't. Cuz i can't Go on do it! If you really, really mean it...
Don't just hold back then regret it.
You're sweet and sincere but so ruled by fear.
What do you want me to do?
Make all the big decisions for you?
Cuz i can't well i can't.
