Operator

Duologue

Yeah... right... yeah...*
Uh huh
Yeah... right... yeah...
Turn the lights off
Maybe I forgot his birthday... Oops
I meant to take him to lunch this afternoon
Now his pissed off in the worst way
I hope he gets over this attitude real s0on
[Chorus:]I guess I did something so wrong...
Cause my baby won't pick up the teleph0ne...
And he ain't even coming home
And it's been so long
So I say hello operator... hellooo
Can you put my baby on the line

So that we can get together later
Cause I really want to spend some time...
Cause he won't... he won't... he won't... he won't... he won't [x3]
He won't answer my call
Can you put my baby on the line
I was shopping with my my homegals
Didn't expect him to act so immature
He be off in his own world...
I thought my baby was in so insecure
[Chorus]Maybe I should send him some flowers or a card
Some candy or a letter cause his taking it s0 hard
I should take him on a Shopping spree
Let's ball out at the mall
Out wine him and dine I might as well have me a ball...
[Chorus]
