

Impossible

Gloria Lynne

If they had ever told me
How sweet a kiss could be
I would have said, "Impossible,
Impossible for me" And if they said, "You'll find love
Beyond the rainbow's end"
I would have said, "Impossible,
Impossible, my friend." To dream about what might have been
Is strange enough for me
But now it seems I'm livin' in
A dream too beautiful to believe they had said a moonbeam
Would calm a stormy sea
I would have said, "Impossible",
But now at last I see
That nothing is impossible
If you are here with me.
