Weird on the Avenue

Elf Power

I think the handcuffs are a bit much i dont recall ever losing my touch but just to hold you wouldnt be fair not only cavemen enjoy pulling hair theres a tattoo parlor down the street a tattooed face often does look so sweet they call it weird on the avenue with all that's been done now what could be new?
they say you're a ten
i guess that means
ten dollars a night
your piercings say youre on a crusade but down that street baby there's no parade
they call it weird on the avenue
i see your neck has found a noose im not a cop, havent lived your abuse the avenue has led me to here im holdin' back all my tears for you Weird
