Sad

Eisley

Hardly waiting till the bed was warm
He closed his eyes and said, "I'm feeling torn"
How could I be so unendingly forced into this course
Sad, I feel sad for you
So sad you'll be left alone and broken
Bleeding from the heart
When he doesn't come home, come home
Softly sighs my Nightingale
Another broken promise
Tips the scale and it goes pale
He sings shifting from side to side
Can't make up his God-given mind, oh
Why don't you just go? She's waiting
Sad, I feel sad for you
So sad you'll be left alone and broken
Bleeding from the heart
When he doesn't come home, come home
Oh honey, I am telling you
You'd better think about it, oh, oh
Sad, I feel sad for you
So sad you'll be left alone and broken
Bleeding from the heart
When he doesn't come
Sad, I feel sad for you
So sad you'll be left alone and broken
Bleeding from the heart
When he doesn't come home
