

I Think I Love You

The Guggenheim Grotto

Well I think I love you but to say so would bore you because we've only just met and I'd look dumb.

So I'm gonna try clever and dress it up in leather, you know it's easier to swallow when it's fun.

And for the most part I agree, yeah only fools wear heart on sleeve.

Oh but girl the way you make me feel, I wanna say it, hell I wanna scream.

See it's not that I do or don't believe, it's that I just don't not believe in God and aliens and love at first sight.

Last night I couldn't get back to sleep, watching you lying next to me and for a moment every last part of me felt right.

Come morning reason don't agree, he's saying boy that's a foolish thing to believe.

Oh but girl the way you make me feel, I wanna say it, hell I wanna scream.

Maybe I should wake you up, and tell you there and then.

Better still I'll leave you be and whisper it subliminally over and over again and again.

I think I love you, I think I love you, I think I love you do. Yeah, I think I love you, I think I love you, I think I love you do.

And for the most part I agree, only fools wear heart on sleeve.

Oh but girl the way you make me feel, I wanna say it, hell I wanna scream.

Sister the way you make me feel, I wanna say it, hell I wanna scream.

Sister the way you make me feel, I wanna say it, hell I wanna scream.
