Forlorn

Sunna

Saw your face today
And right away I know you
In another life we do strive for love
Close my eyes and I can see your smile

I know you
In the after life we reconcile
I know this is true
Is it a dream it feels so real

Or am I deluding myself
Do I live in my dream forlorn
If you join me there
Together we are home

I give my love for you
'Cause I am all thrown
I can give
But I won't lie my way home

Keeping up with you I can't hide
Giving up with you the love that's deep inside
And do you know everywhere you go
I can feel you're there

Now I dream of where
This is my dream
This is my nightmare
So as it seems I've been

Deluding myself
Do I live in my dream forlorn
If you join me there
Together we are home

I give my love for you
'Cause I am all thrown
I can give
But I won't buy my way home

Can you hear the words I'm saying
No I won't buy my way home
I can't put this feeling to bed
No I won't die forlorn

Can you hear me can you hear me
I won't die forlorn
No I won't
I can give, but I won't die on my own
