

Breakin' On The Love Thing

Alex J. Robinson

You can tell me that you want me
You can tell me that I'm fine
I don't know what's up your sleeve
Bet I know what's on your mind
Sooner or later
You'll wanna get close to me
And then you're gonna figure it out

Let the telephone ring ring
I'm breakin on the love thing
Breakin on the love thing
I've had enough of all that stuff
So I'm
Breakin on the love thing
I say goodbye
To all the sides of love

We can party on the weekend
We can hang out all night long
But we're only gonna be friends
So don't be getting me wrong

You can never say never
But I'll never be that girl
Who never ever figures it out

So let the telephone ring ring
I'm breaking on the love thing
Breakin on the love thing
I've had enough of all that stuff
So I'm
Breakin on the love thing
I say goodbye
To all the sides of love

You're driving me crazy
When you try so hard
Understand me baby
When I tell you these words
I swear you'll never be happy again..
