Come Back Suzanne

Bill Wyman

I want you back again
YeahYour ain't too short
You ain't that tall but you're heading for a fall
You ain't too young to look that old
You're worth your weight in goldCome back Suzanne, come back Suzianna now
Baby, baby, please come back
Come back Sue, come back Suzianna
Can't you leave the man? I want you back againYou're such a heart breaker, such a heart breaker
And you got a lot of gold
Folk town living make me sing
And move my back against the wallCome back Suzanne, come back Suzianna now
Baby, baby, please come back
Come back Sue, come back Suzianna
Can't you leave the man?'Cause the kitchen needs cleaning and the dishes in the sink
The clothes need washing and the washer's broken down
The lawn needs cutting and the gardener's quit in
And the cats having kittens and the dog's gonePlease come back Suzanne, come back Suzanne
Come back Suzanne, can't you leave the man?
Come back Suzanne, come back Suzianna now
Baby, baby, please come backCome back Sue, come back Suzianna now
What am I gonna do?
I can't stand it, I can't stand it
I can't stand it, I can't stand itThe gold fish are dying and the bowls gone green
I've got rings around the toilet, been laughing on the phone
The sheets need changing and the bed's begun to squeak
The parrot's stopped talking and it's only been a weekCome back Suzanne, come back Suzanne
Come back Suzanne, can't you leave the man?
Come back Suzanne, come back Suzianna now
Baby, baby, please come backCome back Sue, come back Suzianna
What am I gonna do?
Come back Suzanne, come back Suzianna now
Baby, baby, please come back
