

Go Go

Anna Rossinelli

She said you haven't been around some days
She said she missed you more than she did ever before
She said you spend the nights with someone else
I said that she should be with you no more and No more
No more
No more
'Cause you won't stop
Stop talking bullshit Go on, go with your chick
I don't, don't give a shit
Go on and never come back Go on, go with your chick
I don't, don't give a shit
Go on, stop talking crap
You said you needed time to find yourself
You said that she could also use some on her own
You said you didn't mean to break her heart
And no she's breaking down and only feeling alone All alone
All alone
'Cause you won't stop
Stop talking bullshit Go on, go with your chick
I don't, don't give a shit
Go on and never come back Go on, go with your chick
I don't, don't give a shit
Go on, stop talking crap She used to think that you were crazy for
Her big bright eyes and her scent
She used to think that you were meant to be
But it was only a dream
I say go on, go on (what are you to)
Go on, go on
(talk that bullshit)
Go on, go on
(go with your chick)
Go on, go on
(I don't give a shit) Go on, go with your chick
I don't, don't give a shit
Go on and never come back Go on, go with your chick
I don't, don't give a shit
Go on and stop talking crap Go on, go with your chick
I don't, don't give a shit

Go on and never come backGo on, go with your chick
I don't, don't give a shit
Go on, stop talking crapGo on, go on
