

First Timer

Hanoi Rocks

Please operator, please operator
This is the first time I'm with a woman
Well, years can change
And we become much older Oh, but we don't always realize
And it becomes harder and harder
Soon I'll be too old to be a debutante
I'm hangin' up my telephone How come you don't ever come?
How come you don't ever come?
I'm hangin' up my telephone
How come you don't ever come? Tonight will be the first time ever
That I'll fall in love with the things we can do
Tonight will be the first time ever
That I'll get to know the things we can do We'll take a break, our line's engaged
No one can stop me now
Well, comin' in, it thrills me so
Never ever let me go, never let me go Go, go, go, year can change
And we get older and older
Soon I'll be too old to be a debutante
And it becomes harder and harder Don't leave me hangin' on the telephone
Please, don't leave me hangin' on my telephone How come you don't ever come?
How come you don't ever come?
Oh yeah, please operator
Please, operator, look out

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>