Watch and Pray

Twila Paris

The enemy roams
Like a roaring lion
Looking for the sleeping
Looking for the sleepingWhen he comes here
Let him find us keeping our promises
Holding to faithfulness
Down on our knees, eyes to the eastWatch and pray
No one knows the moment
No one knows the hour
Or the dayWatch and pray
Till you see Him coming
Coming through the clouds in white array
To take His bride awayThe King will appear
With a shout of glory
All the earth awaking
All the earth awakingUntil He comes
Let us keep on taking the highest ground
Listening for the sound
Down on our knees, eyes to the eastWatch and pray
No one knows the moment
No one knows the hour
Or the dayWatch and pray
Till you see Him coming
Coming through the clouds in white array
To take His bride awayBehold the Bridegroom
Behold the Bridegroom
He is coming soon
Prepare Him roomWatch and pray
No one knows the moment
No one knows the hour
Or the dayWatch and pray
Till you see Him coming
Coming through the clouds in white array
To take His bride awayWatch and pray
No one knows the moment
No one knows the hour
Or the dayWatch and pray
Till you see Him coming
Coming through the clouds in white array

To take His bride awayWatch and pray
Till you see Him coming
To take His bride away
