

Anxiety

Room 94

This is the end of everything we knew
The start of something beautiful, but I,
I'm not ready for a change tonight
Coz honestly I'm best friends with misery
(Take what you need from me)
I believe you were made to fuck with me.
(This is the part I hate, the part you take all that we made) They don't know about us, is this what you wanted
You're not who you used to be
Anxiety, you're killing me! They were never yours to break
And throw away forget the words forget my name
And I, I don't wanna get it wrong this time
Coz honestly I fell in love with tragedy
(Take what you need from me)
I don't believe anything your telling me! Who have you become
It's hard to recognize you,
Must be something I can do!
I'm looking, trying to find you.
Is there something I can do.
