Send A Little Love Token

The Duke Spirit

Did you read what I wrote?
Oh, did you read what I wrote?
Or did you just sit back to tear it up
And prove I was wrong?And did you smile when you read?
Oh, did you smile when I said
That you have a cold heart, cold hands
And you're a cold, cold disgrace?And do you roam on your own?
Oh, do you roam on your own
Or you had to ask mother, father, brother
For some money again?I would send a little love token
Wrap it in my heart and go home
I would send a little love token
Wrap it in my heart and go homeYou ever think how I might be
When I'm alone and I need
For there's no one home
And you're not reaching for meListen do you roam on your own?
Oh, you go on, on your way
But you had to ask mother, father, sister
For that money again, ooh, oohI would send a little love token
Wrap it in my heart and go home
I would send a little love token
Wrap it in my heart and go homeRead those words you never heard
Read those words that you've never even heard
And you're too cold, I bet we've never see you burn
You should read those words, I bet you've never even heardI would send a little love token
Wrap it in my heart and go home
I would send a little love token
Wrap it in my heart and go homeI would send a little love token
Wrap it in my heart and go home
I would send a little love token
Wrap it in my heart and go home
