

Alley Cat

Steel Train

I'm takin' new answers to questions of yesterday
I've seen you slide away
When you cannot hold me, then I saw
Colors that ruin you 'wayTtaken what you are, yeah, you'll get real farDon't you know that I'm an Alley Cat
And I stay home and dream my life away
You know that I belong to that club you hate
We're doin' just greatRunnin' to your ends girl
When cracks line the words you say
High as the sky, you seem so safeAnd so I'll take all the shame for you, love
And you breath what we make
Taken where you are my babe, you would get real farDon't you know that I'm an Alley Cat
And I stay home and dream my life away
You know that I belong to that club you hate
Yaah, we're doin' just greatTaken what you are, ooh, you should get real farAnd don't you know that I'm an
Alley Cat
And I stay home and dream my life away
