Alley Cat

Steel Train

I'm takin' new answers to questions of yesterday

I've seen you slide away

When you cannot hold me, then I saw

Colors that ruin you 'wayTtaken what you are, yeah, you'll get real farDon't you know that I'm an Alley Cat

And I stay home and dream my life away

You know that I belong to that club you hate

We're doin' just greatRunnin' to your ends girl

When cracks line the words you say

High as the sky, you seem so safeAnd so I'll take all the shame for you, love

And you breath what we make

Taken where you are my babe, you would get real farDon't you know that I'm an Alley Cat

And I stay home and dream my life away

You know that I belong to that club you hate

Yaah, we're doin' just greatTaken what you are, ooh, you should get real farAnd don't you know that I'm an

Alley Cat
