

Burn a Miracle

Say Anything

[Intro]One, two, three, four and five
Blood ran cold, but I'm comin' alive
One, two, three, four and five
Blood ran cold, but I'm comin' alive[Verse]I once courted a boy
He looked a lot like me
But his eyelids were destroyedAnd his pupils
Kept sucking on
Data files like noodlesPleased himself to the music
Of well-dressed, inbred college students
As his girlfriend starved on the alter
To his blog of the sickening things he would call herNow I'm coming alive
And like a weed through fields of
Placid posies thrive
Spewing glory, all draped in guts and their sense of the storyI need a song that's around me
The devils who dance on fields of brilliant treble
Need to ask your children a question
Do you really wanna stand stiff at attention?[Chorus]Do you want it?
Do you need it?
Do you feel it?
Do you want it?
Do you see it?
Believe it
Do you, do you, do you want it?[Post Chorus]Burn a miracle if you've got a soul
Burn a miracle
Burn AmericaBurn a miracle if you've got a soul
Burn a miracle
Burn America[Verse]I saw Stereo Head
They looked a lot like the Same band, but they were deafAnd their singer kept twirling around
On a slick middle fingerAnd I'm awash in thunder and venom
They try to hold you down, but I won't let 'em
As we emerge from the muck and the mire
We're gonna set their champagne god on fire[Chorus x2]
[Post Chorus x1]
Burn America
Burn the dream[Outro]
I know a place where the moon goes to fly
I know that dreams swarm and sting as they die
But the corpses ride horses and stab through the sun

You live the life that you've barely begun
To live!
To live! One, two, three, four and five
Blood ran cold, but I'm comin' alive
