

Dead Promises

The Rasmus

The break of dawn kills all the beauty
The dead of night is drifting away
I should have stayed and welcome the day
I should have find the one and hide from the sun

The ray of light cuts like a razor
Breaking fire burst in my eye
The day reveals the dreadful betrayal
And its wicked mind, hide from the sun
Hide from the sun, hide from the sun

[Chorus:]
Dead promises
Raining from the world so cold
Ancient prophecies
Remain from the world so cold

The time has come
Hide from the sun

Like a rat I run to the darkness
Ray of light erases my mind
Afraid to look back into the heartless
World of dust and blood, hide from the sun
Hide from the sun, hide from the sun

[Chorus]

The time has come
Hide from the sun

I won't be better
I won't be a speeder
In my own heaven
I'll be gone forever
Oh no die never
I won't cry never
Oh no die never

[Chorus]

The time has come
Hide from the sun
