

Bad Blood (iTunes Session)

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Everything just falls away, just give it back into your arms
So many pieces fall away, just give 'em back into your heart
I feel that one more day is gone, you may never see the dawn
But nothin' ever stays the same, it's fighting you at every turn Like a door that never opens wide, you just get kicked until your heart's bled dry
The road is gone but there's a line you cross, and I don't think you'll stop
I could see it in your eyes and now it's gone
I could see it in your eyes and now it's gone
I could see it in your eyes and now it's gone
With bad blood and feelings
Just bad blood and feelings
Bad blood and feelings
So many pieces fall away, just give 'em back into your heart
So many people fall away, just let them go into the dark
And every night I stay away, the feelin' running through my blood
But all I've got is faith and science, a line that will only blur
Like a door that never opens wide,
You just get kicked until your heart's bled dry
The road is gone but there's a line you cross, and I don't think you'll stop
gone
I could see it in your eyes and now it's gone
I could see it in your eyes and now it's gone
With bad blood and feelings
Just bad blood and feelings
Bad blood and feelings
I'm not slave to a world I could never save,
As the light just disintegrates in the final hour
You never felt you were so alive, and you thought it could never die,
Now you just look back and wonder why it could never be
I could see it in your eyes and now it's gone
I could see it in your eyes and now it's gone
With bad blood and feelings
Just bad blood and feelings
Just bad blood and feelings
Just bad blood and feelings
Bad blood and feelings
