

Walking in the Sun

Lena Katina

Heavy hearted, empty handed
Feels like no way out
Tangled thoughts have left me stranded
Spinnin' me around Yesterday is killing me, taking me down
Holding my heart to the floor
Tearin' me, twistin' me over, but now
I'm steppin' out that door Today I'll be walking in the sun
Running from everyone
Breaking away from what was done
Running from everyone
Yesterday is over
Tomorrow rain might come
But today I'll be walking... Walking in the sun I'm refusing to surrender
I won't stop to fight
All my doubts will be suspended
Fadin' in the light Every step, every breath, clearing my head
Shatter my fate on the floor
Nothing is holding me
No more regret
I'm steppin' out that door Today I'll be walking in the sun
Running from everyone
Breaking away from what was done
Running from everyone
Yesterday is over
Tomorrow rain might come
But today I'll be walking... Walking in the sun Yesterday is over, I'll be walking
(Walking in the sun)
Nothing's gonna stop me, I'll be gone
(Walking in the sun)
Yesterday is over, I'll be walking
(Walking in the sun)
Nothing's gonna stop me, I'll be gone Standing in the light
Feeling so alive
I'm standing in the light
I'm feeling, feeling, I'm feeling Today I'll be walking in the sun
Running from everyone
Breaking a way from what was done
Running from everyone
Yesterday is over

Tomorrow rain might come
But today I'll be walking...Walking in the sunYesterday is over, I'll be walking
Nothing's gonna stop me, I'll be goneYesterday is over, I'll be walking
Nothing's gonna stop me, I'll be goneWalking in the sun
