

Stanley Climbfall

Lifehouse

Quiet

Seems like an honest world

You're begging for the beggars' bread when the money's out

Stand climb and fall

Carry the world

Can't carry your own

When the world is falling down

And another breaks then another falls

For losers always make the winner's day

Stand climb and fall

Carry the weight

Can't carry it all

Are you falling

Are you faking

Are you healing

Are you breaking

Am I burning

Am I only melting

These diamonds in the making

And I'm at the end of myself

Anything you want

And nothing seems to satisfy me

Take anything you want

Quiet

A sound you know so well

You're living just to make it through another day

Stand climb and fall

Carry the world

Can't carry your own

Are you falling

Are you faking

Are you healing

Are you breaking

Am I burning

Am I only melting

These diamonds in the making

And I'm at the end of myself

Anything you want

And nothing seems to satisfy me

Take anything you want
Take anything you want
Take anything you want
 Quiet
