I Believe

Sam Garrett

I Believe â€“ Sam Garrett

Iâ€™m a lover, I was born this way
Iâ€™m a warrior, and I will make a change
I hope youâ€™re ready, for what Iâ€™m about to say
You are love, yeah, you are brave

So, come with me
Take a jump into this ocean
And now, set your heart free,
Throw the change into motion, yeah,
We can live in peace
We can say the war is over
And you will come to see
We will make a difference, I believe
We will make a difference, yeah

Iâ€™m a Baba, I sing to mahadev
Come to bring the truth
To those who cannot see
Well, donâ€™t let us stray into unrighteous ways
Weâ€™ll go back in (he said???), inside your holy cave

And come with me, take a jump into this ocean
And now, set your heart free
Throw the change into motion, yeah
We can live in peace, oh,
We can say the war is over
And you will come to see
We will make a difference, I believe
We will make a difference, I believe, yeah,
We gonna make a change

Oh, mama
We going down down down down, oh
We going down down down down, oh
We going down down down down, oh
We going down down down down down
Into the depths of love

So, come with me,
Take a jump into this ocean
And now, set your heart free
Throw the change into motion
We can live in peace, oh
We can say the war is over
And you will come to see
We will make a difference, I believe
We will make a difference, I believe,
We will make a difference, I believe, oooh, yes,
I know I know I know we will
Yes I know I know we gonna make a change, yeah
Yes I know I know, make a change
We will make a difference, I know.
