Golden Opportunity

Brave Combo

Hello, my life sucks
In a thousand ways it's just
A disappointing loss of time
And energy
My need for control
Even down to your very soul
Has me soing things I wouuldn't do
Even if I were meChorus a:
When it gets really bad
And I know the way I am
Then an avalanche of trouble starts
And I'm thankful againChorus b:
What's this good luck happening to me
It's just a golden opportunity
What's this good luck happening to me
It's just a golden opportunityMy hot water's deep
All the lies I've tried to keep
Have me worried constantly
It's a sad thingThen the drama lights the fuse
And I discover my own ruse
Then a guilty voice speaks to me
And I'm humbled by the shameChorus aChorus b
