

Over the Creek

George Ezra

Well I may love you in the morning
Like today, you'll never know
If I would step this way, I'd find a garden
Like today, you'll never know

Well you may claim that you found me
Like today, you'll never know
Like today, you'll never know

Oh non the less,
I must confess,
That I'm a mess
I've been left to save you

You're situation must be there
You're situation must be over the creek
and when did we speak
I'm over the creek
And when did we speak

That I kind of left you
I still haven't met you
Well I may fall into your dance
Like today, I'd never know
We may meet with awkward hearts
Like today, I'll never know
Like today, I'll never know

Oh non the less,
I must confess,
That I'm a mess
Oh non the less,
I must confess,
I'm a mess
I've been left to save you

My situation must be there
My situation must be over the creek
And when did we speak

I?m over the creek
And when did we speak

That I kind of left you
I still haven?t met you
And if I ever said too much
They?ll be my last spoken words
And if I never said enough
They?ll be my last spoken words
They?ll be my last spoken words

Oh non the less,
I must confess,
That I?m a mess
Oh non the less,
I must confess,
That I?m a mess

Our situations must be there
Our situations must be over the creek
And when did we speak
I?m over the creek
And when did we speak

That I kind of left you
