Cry No More

Chris Brown

Never thought it'd catch me
Never thought it'd cost me
Never thought it'd hurt me
Never thought I'd fall in love..
But I did
I feel like somebody dropped a ton of bricks on my stomach [now]
I can't eat
I can't sleep
And it hurts me so deep
I heard people talk about it
And laugh like it'll never happened to me
Now look at me
It caught me
See how quick karma comes around
Who says a man ain't supposed to cry?
Wish I can crawl under a rock somewhere and just die
Just want the pain to go away, today
I don't wanna cry no more
And I don't wanna hurt no more
And I don't wanna love no more
Especially if it causes this
I don't want no part of it
Because it hurts me so bad
Even when it's sunny outside
It still feels like it's raining
No clouds insight
But I still need your umbrella[oh]
Sometimes I wish I would've never let you in
And then, wish I never met you
Fell in love with you
Then I wouldn't feel like I do
Who says a man ain't supposed to cry?

Wish I could crawl under a rock somewhere and just die
I just want the pain to go away, today
I don't wanna cry no more
And I don't wanna hurt no more
And I don't wanna love no more
Especially if it causes this

I don't want no part of it
Because it hurts me so bad
Never thought it'd catch me
Never thought it'd cost me
Never thought it'd hurt me
Never thought I'd fall in love
But I did ooohh
Never thought it'd catch me
Never thought it'd cost me
Never thought it'd hurt me, like this
I just want the pain to go away, today!
I don't wanna cry no more
And I don't wanna hurt no more
And I don't wanna love no more
Especially if it causes this
I don't want no part of it
Because it hurts me so bad
Never thought it'd catch me
Never thought it cost me
Never thought it hurt me
Never thought I'd fall in love
But I did
Never thought it'd catch me
Never thought it'd cost me
Never thought it'd hurt me like this
Like, like this [today]
