American Television

Cynthia Witthoft

Back in the day when I was a teenager
Out on my own, fall in love with strangers
Oh no, desire, what are you putting me through
You looked beautiful in 1992Im watching what do I wanna be?
Baby, Im in love with possibility
Give me sex and give me patience
I cant wait, I cant wait, change the stationIm watching, Im watching
Im watching American television
Im watching, Im watching
Im watching American televisionBack in the day, waiting for a sign to move
I got nothing to say, I got something to prove
Oh me, oh my, teenagers get bored
You looked beautiful in 1994Im dreaming, its not a fantasy
Baby, Im in love with reality
Give me joy, give me emotion
I cant wait, I cant wait, change the programIm watching, Im watching
Im watching American television
Im watching, Im watching
Im watching American televisionIm watching, what do I wanna be?
Im watching, what do I wanna be?
Im watching, Im watching
Im watching American televisionHere we are and now we own the boulevard
We dropped off our fear at the junkyard
Oh man, we can turn it up loud
You look beautiful right here, right nowIm still watching what do I wanna be Baby, Im love with possibility
Gimme sex, indecision
Im watching American televisionIm watching, Im watching
Im watching American television
Im watching, Im watching
Im watching American televisionIm watching, what do I wanna be?
Im watching, what do I wanna be?
Im watching, Im watching
Im watching American televisionIm watching, what do you wanna be?
Im watching, what do you wanna be?
Im watching, Im watching
Im watching American
