Beautiful

Maren Ord

If you could open up your eyes
And see the color of my tears
They're not that gray, they're not that
Blue, they're beautifulIf you could just see what I see
You'd know the world is not that gray
And it's not that blue
You'd see the world is beautiful
If you wouldOpen your eyes, take my hand
Take a look at where you stand
It's not that hard
Just take a step back my friend
And see this world
We're living in it's beautiful
Life is beautifulSo take that look from off your face
I know it's not that easy so tell me
Oh, it's not that gray so look at me andOpen your eyes, take my hand
Take a look at where you stand
It's not that hard
Just take a step back my friend
And see this world
We're living in it's beautiful
Life is beautifulIt's when I open up my eyes
And see the color of your tears
They're not that gray
They're not that blue, noIf you could just see what I see
You'd know the world is not that gray
It's not that blue
You'd see that the world is beautiful
