I'm Already Gone

Phil Vassar

I suppose I could stop it now
And say I didn't need it anyhow
Just walk away and let it go
Tip my hat and try to play it cool
To keep myself from being made a fool
I could pretend you don't already knowThat I'm already gone
I never thought I'd cross over the line
But it's way too late
And your love is just too strong
And I'm already goneThere's no doubt about how I feel
Both my hands are off the wheel
So now it's really up to you
This is something that I've never done
You know I've always been the first to run
But girl this time there's nothin' I can do'Cause I'm already gone
I never thought I'd cross over the line
But it's way too late
And your love is just too strong
And I'm already goneWell I tried so hard
To keep the walls from fallin'
I found a hiding place
And told my heart to waitBut I'm already gone
I never thought I'd cross over the line
But it's way too late
And your love is just too strong
And I'm already gone
And I'm, I'm already gone
