

Message to U

Eldest 11

The nothing was never right.
The nothing is real.
and childhood hurts to remember.
You cried a sullen tear to release my fears in here.
I'm incapable of tears and I'll climb the ladder I fear.
Hoping I can find love but not in you! You! Somehow I wish there was more to this....more to this!
and I corrupt it!
and I bury it!
and I breathe life into it!
When I need it! This is my message to U!
Why do I feel forsaken?
When you're only teaching me.
What's the use in me?
To rape my memories?
To give me an eternal sting.
How do I compensate for the loss, of a broken memory? Somehow I wish there was more to this....more to this!
and I corrupt it!
and I bury it!
and I breathe life into it!
When I need it!
