

I Feel Alright

Zornik

I open the door see a baby blue eyes, filled with a spark She's wearing her dress and all I can see is gold And i see her, I call her, she hears me and all there is to know is hidden from everybody except the both of us
It was a good life
You were the king of your mind
Oh so excited
To be a little child again
I feel alright
Tadadadadamdadadam
I feel alright
Tadadadadamdadadam
And there she is playing and laughing and singing out loud
And as I will gather
I think I might getting older
It was a good life
You were the king of your mind
Oh so excited
To be a little child again
I feel alright
Tadadadadamdadadam
I feel alright
Tadadadadamdadadam
