

Hummer

Smashing Pumpkins

Faith lies in
The ways of sin
I chased the charmed
But I don't want them anymore And in their eyes I was alive
A fool's disguise
Take me away from you Shame my tongue
Fat with promise all along
When I woke up from that sleep
I was happier than I'd ever been When you decide
That your life is a prize
Renew and revive
It's alright honey
It's alright, yeah Happiness will make you wonder
Will I feel okay?
It scares the disenchanted
Far away Yeah, I want something new
But what am I supposed to do about you
Yeah, I love you, it's true Life's a bummer
When you're a hummer
Life's a drag Ask yourself a question
Anyone but me, I ain't free
Ask yourself a question
Anyone but me, I ain't free Do you feel
Love is real?
