

Show Me

Idina Menzel

Heaven knows I went through hell
Trying to trust somebody else
I had all but given up
Cause I was never quite enoughCouldn't tell I was going under
Suddenly, suddenly that water
Pulls you in, pulls you down
Balancing on a tightrope wire
Build the walls, build the walls up higher
Until you, until nowBaby, I feel it deep down in my bones
There's a part of me no one else has known
When you look, not afraid of what you see
But you say show me, you say show meAnd I know you can see into my soul
To the part of me no one else has known
When you look in my eyes, I do believe
I can show me, I can show meBreathing in and breathing out
I won't look back and won't look down
All the mess that came before
Set me up for something moreCouldn't tell I was going under
Suddenly, suddenly that water
Pulls you in, pulls you down
Balancing on a tightrope wire
Build the walls, build the walls up higher
Until you, until nowBaby, I feel it deep down in my bones
There's a part of me no one else has known
When you look, not afraid of what you see
But you say show me, you say show meAnd I know you can see into my soul
To the part of me no one else has known
When you look in my eyes, I do believe
I can show me, I can show meBaby, I'll leave it all out on the floor
(I can show, I can show)
Cause the past, it won't break me anymore
(I can show, I can show)
When you look in my eyes (I can show, I can show)
I do believe (I can show, I can show)
I can show me (I can show, I can show)
I can show (I can show, I can show)Baby, I feel it deep down in my bones
(Deep down in my soul)
There's a part of me no one else has known
(No one else has known)

When you look, not afraid of what you see (Oooh)
But you say show me, you say show me (Oooh) And I know you can see into my soul (see into my soul)
To the part of me no one else has known
When you look in my eyes, I do believe
That you say show me (show me)
And you say show me
I can show me (Oooh)
I can show me I can show me (I can show me)
I will show me
