Verse 1.

Tell me do you still remember
All the times that passed us by?
We've had heartaches
But that's what love takes
It's like a shelter in the rain.

And it still feels just like the first time
When the words you want to say.

Verse 2

There are good things on the horizon
And the future's bright you'll see
It's a journey, no destination
It's a bond that leads me home.

Oh baby,
Will you still love me every day?
Will you still love me every day?

Well I'll be gone instead.
