

This Is The End Of Everything

Moss

it won't stop until it's right again
This is the end of everything it won't stop until it's right again I'm pushing out a lot too far I can't understand who you are it brings a little burst to hide it brings a little loss inside This is the end of everything it won't stop until it's right again
it won't stop until it's right again there is such a pretty life to live there is such a pretty goal to achieve monologue to my own mind a monologue to my own mind
This is the end of everything
it won't stop until it's right again
it won't stop until it's right again
