

Hallelujah

The Wild Feathers

Hallelujah, thank you Lord
My soul was cracking from being worn
Hallelujah, I'm so alone
Too tired to think to lift my bones
Carry me home, it's been way too long
Can't sing you songs anymore
Hallelujah, I'm going insane
Two dollar troubles inside my brain
Give me your pain, give me your heart too
Oh hallelujah, looks good on you
Carry me home,
it's been way too long
Can't sing you songs anymore
No more, oh no, oh no, anymore
Carry me home,
it's been way too long
Can't sing you songs anymore
No more, oh no, anymore
