

Wind in the Willows

Blackmore's Night

As I went a walking
One morning in spring
I met with some travelers
On an old country lane
One was an old man
The second a maid
The third was a young boy who smiled as he said "With the wind in the willows
The birds in the sky
There's a bright sun to warm us wherever we lie...
We have bread and fishes and a jug of red wine
To share on our journey with all of mankind". So I asked them to tell me their name and their race so i could remember there kindest embrace
I am Joseph this is mary my wife and this is our son who brightens our life
