

You Make It Sound so Simple

Roxette

The world looks complicated,
The universe so frustrating
I wish I was blind, just for a moment
I'm having a hard time sleeping
I'm fighting a far light visions
Images in my mind
I'm saying my prayers But you make it sound so simple, so simple,
You make it sound so simple, so simple (But you make it sound so simple)
You make it simple, like 1, 2, 3
You make it simple, like A, B, C
You make it simple, there's a you and me
You make it simple, there's a you and me The world sinks in corruption
I'm waiting for an interruption
Is it all in my head? It's getting confusing
The sun has a hard time rising
Fighters and far out visions
The leaving the dare I'm saying my prayers But you make it sound so simple, so simple,
You make it sound so simple, so simple (But you make it)
You make it simple, like 1, 2, 3
You make it simple, like A, B, C
You make it simple, there's a you and me
You make it simple, there's a you and me You make it simple like how to breathe
You make it simple like how to breathe
You make it simple, there's a you and me
You make it simple, there's a you and me
