

So Many Things

Luna Rose

The states are waging war
 Tonight on us, my dear
And Time plays her cruel, twisted game
 Of stealing back the tide before our feet touch

 So grab your armor now
 Meet me in Missouri somehow
 To build a safehaven out of clouds
 Well I know 'cause you said it out loud

 You said
 "You are so many things"
 And I thought
 "You are more than I dreamed"

And I know it's a long shot in the dark
 But I'm hoping
 To make a home
 In your heart

 Your courage emanates
 And erases all my fears
 If I have a lot to give
 Will you be on the other end?

 So grab your armor now
 Meet me in Missouri somehow
 To build a safehaven out of clouds
 Well I know 'cause you said it out loud

 You said
 "You are so many things"
 And I thought
 "You are more than I dreamed"

And I know it's a long shot in the dark
 But I'm hoping
 To make a home
 In your heart

In your heart
[You are]
So many things
[You are]
You are so many things
