

If the Moon Rises

PAPA

ain't it so good to be young in America and watch the world burn don't it feel right to be bare in the arms of a rich NY American man (hoo) run, honey, run
I'll always let you go
run, honey, run
I'll always let you go
oooooh, ooooooh
oooooh, ooooooh
ain't it so fine to have your own drabby room in this house on fire fire, fire
run, honey, run
I'll always let you go
run, honey, run
I'll always let you go
you gotta run, honey, run I'll always let you go
run, honey, run
I'll always let you go
