

Taller Than Me

Evan Blum

I know people see and they laugh at me hah cuz yes
its true
my girls taller than me

i'm the laughing stock of the town and all of this should get me down but no matter the difference in height i gotta say it feels so

Good to love you girl

god it feels so right

to rock your world

and god it feels so

automatic
fucking baller
knowing that
my girl is taller
than me

she's taller, she's taller, she's taller
than me
she's taller she taller

hey tall girl
yes i love no one else

so could you please get that for me from your top shelf?

i been dating her since last june

now we share a house
and our very own room

and when we sleep during the full moon i let her be the big spoon

i wanna
put your feet up
and eat up

and free up
both of my hands

so i can heat up
and speed up
and re up

all this love for your man can't wait to be your mister love the way you swiffer

love the way you use your legs when you playin twista

and i know it may sound kinda strange and not right but could i

wear your
heels for the night

she measured me
in my sleep
way back
last February

being seen as your son
is one of my fears
cuz i still do my shopping at the kid sections at sears

but

big things
come in
small packages

that ain't just a figure of speech thats just the way it is truth be told

i didn't even know you were tall until you wore my large sweat shirt as a mini skirt

and i'm glad your tall

gives me more of you love

i love staring into your eyes

about 2 feet above

but life's short and so am i

so why
not be
with a tall girl
for the rest of my time cuz no matter the difference in height

automatic
knowing that
than me
than me

than meee .....
