

HideAway

Gene Noble

It could be so simple but instead I'm always hard her bodies my temple
but I cruise the boulevard (yeah) I try to run from temptation
but it always picks up speed no I'm not tryna replace her but it's hard to fight my needs

I just want to love her, love her, love her
but there is another, another, another
what if she uncovers, cover, cover
I still got a lover, that I, hide away
(a lover I hide away)
(a lover I hide away)

guilt is gonna kill me before she ever does
oh, my flesh is so weak
I might as well give up she's really one in a million future mother of my child that's why I gotta get over my sweet tooth on the side

I just want to love her, love her, love her
but there is another, another, another
what if she uncovers, cover, cover
I still got a lover, that I, hide away
(a lover I hide away)
(a lover I hide away)
(a lover I hide away)
(a lover I hide away)

(that I hide away)
(that I hide away)
(that I hide away)
(that I hide away)
(that I hide away)
(that I hide away)

(that I hide away)
(that I hide away)

I just want to love her, love her, love her
but there is another, another, another
what if she uncovers, cover, cover
I still got a lover, that I, hide away
(a lover I hide away)
(a lover I hide away)
(a lover I hide away)
(a lover I hide away)
