World Wide Open

Love and Theft

I need to move, I need to breathe
Shake the things that pull on me holdin' me down, slowin' me down
I need to run, I need to fly
Let go of the things that I, I'm holdin' onto Maybe I need to just open up my eyes so I can see
What's always been there right in front of me
Roads, which one will I take in this world wide open?
This world wide open
Marks, which one will I make in this world wide open?
This world wide open
Every day is an open page
A brand new start, a fresh clean slate given to me
Now it's up to me find my best and lose my worst
I try to heal the things I hurt but I don't mean to
I know I need to make my mistakes and leave them in the past
And make the most of every chance I have
Roads, which one will I take in this world wide open?
This world wide open
Marks, which one will I make in this world wide open?
This world wide open
I'm gonna grab it by both handles and drink
'Cause it's spillin' over me, and it's spillin' over me
Roads, which one will I take in this world wide open?
This world wide open
Marks, which one will I make in this world wide open?
This world wide open
Roads, which one will I take in this world wide open?
This world wide open
Marks, which one will I make in this world wide open?
This world wide open
