Black

Gilby Clarke

If I told you I could love you
I feel you'll think I'm weak
I never had a friend who was my lover
HonestlyWhen I wake up from my sleep
And I feel you next to me
I'm so happy inside but I'll be crushed
If you leaveIt's so black, it's so sad
No one understands my hell
It's so black, it's so sad
I'm a stranger to myselfSee, a man can hurt a woman
It'll burn but she'll still forgive
But a woman who is unfaithful
Kills a manDarkness fall on anyone
Who welcomes it
When you're in my bed
It's my home and it's sacredIt's so black, it's so sad
No one understands my hell
It's so black, it's so sad
I'm a stranger to myselfNo one understands my hell
It's my own, it's my own
It's so black, it's so sad
No one understands meI'm always alone
'Cause no one, no one
