

A Thousand Knives

Ted Nugent

Youve been getting restless;
Scratching at my wall.
Suicidal misfit;
its time you took your fall.Double lives are like a thousand knives;
their cutting into you babe.
It happens to you everyday.I was just a schoolboy;
doing as I please.
Young girls in the classroom;
they was putting on the squeeze.Double lives are like a thousand knives;
They cut into you babe.
It happens to you everyday.Double lives are like a thousand knives;
Listen to what I say.
The time has come for you to pay.Now I wont listen to your two cents;
to run and hide is your only defense
A thousand knives, oh yea.(solo)Now your on the rebound;
you know just how it feels.
A copulated misfit;
with the good housekeeping seal.Ive ducked a lot but like a thousand knives;
Their cutting into you baby.
it happens to you everyday.Now I wont listen to your two cents;
to run and hide is to run into yourself.
