Key to My Fate

Edguy

Am I totally blind this time
As I'm dreamin' the dreams that I fear?
Some call it nightmare and some call it life
What's the sense of existence in here?And I think of the sadness
When I'm dreamin' of leavin' my pain
I don't get all that madness
But it drives me insaneNow hear me cry I'm in quest
Of the key to my fate
I might be naive to the key
In the valley of hate, I don't knowAnnihilation in my brain
What is the price that we will be to pay?
When will you lift our poor little souls?
When will you take us oh Lord away?Oh when will we die?
Why to suffer to stay up right?
We are the victims of our time
To fight till the end is in sightNow hear me cry I'm in quest
Of the key to my fate
I might be naive to the key
In the valley of hateNow hear me cry I'm in quest
Of the key to my fate
I might be naive to the key
In the valley of hate, I don't knowWhat's the reason to carry on?
What's the reason to fall?
After days of living hell
After we had to crawlAre we totally blind this time?
Can't you tell me the nexus of freedom
And pain and desires and hate
And even the holy ones?Now hear me cry I'm in quest
Of the key to my fate
I might be naive to the key
In the valley of hateNow hear me cry I'm in quest
Of the key to my fate
I might be naive to the key
In the valley of hate
Key to my fate
