

Lithium and a Lover

Sirenia

When all my demons set their sails
And my mind is riding the last train
Down a one-way track to the final station
Destination, devastation[Foreign content]A thousand demons at my door
Screaming at my crumbling walls
My river's bleeding, my fields are burning
My world has stopped turning[Foreign content]I will be your lithium
And I'll be your loverGive me something for my mind
Something for the pain inside
A remedy, a cure for life
An elixir for this mania of mineGive me what I'm deep in need of A sanctuary beyond this cruel world
A peerless cure-all to recover
Like lithium and a lover
