We're From America

Marilyn Manson

We're from America, we're from America
Where we eat our young
We're from America, we're from America
It's where Jesus was born
We're from America, we're from America
Where they let you come on their faces
We're from America, we're from America
We speak American
We don't believe in credibility
Because we're know that we're fucking incredible
We don't believe in credibility
Because we're know that we're fucking incredible
I want to be a martyr, don't want to be a victim
Be a killer with a gun, so they call me a hero
I want to be a martyr, don't want to be a victim
Be a killer with a gun, so they call me a hero
God is an excuse, God is an excuse
God is an excuse, God is an excuse
God is an excuse, God is an excuse
God is an excuse so sing it with me
We're from America, we're from America
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
We're from America, we're from America
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
We're from America
We don't like to kill our unborn
We need them to grow up and fight our wars
We don't like to kill our unborn
We need them to grow up and fight our wars
We believe in everything we say
We say it because we believe it
We believe in everything we say
We say it because we believe it
We're from America, we're from America
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
We're from America, we're from America
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
We're from America, can you sing it with me?

We're from America, we're from America
We turn literature into litter
We're from America, we're from America
We believe in being a quitter
I'm in recovery, I'm in recovery
I'm in recovery
From America, from America
From America
So sing it with me
We're from America, we're from America
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
We're from America, we're from America
We're from America, can you sing it with me? Yes
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
(We eat our young, we eat our young)
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
(We eat our young, we eat our young)
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
(We eat our young, we eat our young)
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
(We eat our young, we eat our young)
We're from America, can you sing it with me?
