Comfortable

N-dubz

It was 2000 and 4, I was sweet 16
Driving through North West to
On your 125 on the dual carriage way
With the wind in my face
You would pick me up every Saturday
You would always be late but I was willing to wait for you
I didn't know at the time that 5 years down the line
I'd be still waiting for you
And I never imagined we would make it
You, you were my fantasy boy
And this, it was my dream come true
But it's nothing like I expected
I know in time that people change
I'm foolish to think we'd stay the same
But I don't wanna lose my best friend
Tell me if this is love or am I just too comfortable?
Too comfortable
Tell me if this is love or am I just too comfortable?
2000 and 6 I just turned 18
I'm starting to grow up now
Had enough of your shit, said it's time for a change
Said you were feeling the same
You committed and gave me the love that I craved
You were so hard to trust after all that you put me through
But when I gave you the chance I really thought it would las
We were so in love
And I never imagined we would make it
You, you were my fantasy boy
And this, it was my dream come true
But it's nothing like I expected
I know in time that people change
I'm foolish to think we'd stay the same
But I don't wanna lose my best friend
Tell me if this is love or am I just too comfortable?
Too comfortable
Tell me if this is love or am I just too comfortable?
Take a good look at me, look how I've changed
'Cause I ain't half the person I used to be
I tried to wanna make it right, you tried to wanna start a fight

There was nothing left of me, my heart is full of hate and spite
Who the hell is this person that's standing in front of me?
Oh baby, please help me
I'm losing my best friend
But I know in time that people change
I'm foolish to think we'd stay the same
But I don't wanna lose my best friend
Tell me if this is love or am I just too comfortable?
I know in time that people change
I'm foolish to think we'd stay the same
But I don't wanna lose my best friend
Tell me if this is love or am I just too comfortable?
Or am I just too comfortable
