Part of You

Colours

you speak of love girl
know how to touch girl
you want to trust girl then wanna...girl like nothing I have felt lipstick and nothing else you speak to jesus girl dance under bed sheets girl cuzit's all part of you all I want is every part of you I wanna see everything that you are
I wanna know everything that you know
I wanna be everything that you want
I want to take you where you wanna go we go to the edge of the worldyou look like they want to speak how they wish they do then the air leaves the room at any thought of youit's all part of you all I want is every part of youyou speak of love girl
know how to touch girl
then wanna...it's all part of you
all I want is every part of you
I wanna see everything that you are
I wanna know everything that you know
I wanna be everything that you want
I want to take you where you wanna go we go to the edge of the world
