New Dress

Orbans, The

Ah, no
No, no
GoWith a gleaming success
With a different try
Religious indifference
Mixed it through the linesTerritorial company, they legitimize
Persecution to form enterprise
Now the UN is called to buffer it all
The problem is spreading international
Like Ireland's Belfast, it's coming to be a brand new keyWorking class girl puts her money to the test
She's got a new dress, she's gonna look her best
Yugoslavia's been blown to bits, yeah
She's got a new dress, she's lookin' to the westWell entertain the idea of a peaceful end
[Incomprehensible]
Of a world which is seen the citizens die
While the innocent children play near fire nowWhen I'm not getting through and see evidence
Another truth, we're bombing us
The time for civil war is sooner I live
The chivalrous ones are never representedWorking class girl puts her money to the test, yeah
She's got a new dress, she's gonna look her best
Yugoslavia's been blown to bits, yeah
She's got a new dress, she's lookin' to the westAllocating people for [Incomprehensible]
The methods of the summons are dastardly
Try to cleanse the hands of the murdering
But the advantage of guilt is lingeringShadows of soldiers lay nearby
The dead ones finally reach a compromise
Destruction of war lies in Bosnia
The destruction of war lies in Bosnia
